Alaska Airlines Announces New Flying Between Portland, Oregon, and Orlando, Florida

Daily nonstop flights begin March 2017

SEATTLE — Alaska Airlines today announced new, daily nonstop flights between Portland, Oregon, and Orlando, Florida, to begin in March 2017.

The new flight will be the first and only nonstop flight between Portland and Orlando. With the new flying, Alaska will offer 21 weekly nonstop flights from Seattle, Portland and San Diego.

Summary of new service

Date	City pair	Departs	Arrives	Frequency
March 16, 2017	Portland-Orlando	6:40 a.m.	3:15 p.m.	Daily
March 16, 2017	Orlando-Portland	4:15 p.m.	7:35 p.m.	Daily

All times based on local time zones.

Flights will be operated with fuel-efficient Boeing 737 aircraft. Onboard, customers will get to enjoy more of what they love, including the airline's popular streaming entertainment service, Alaska Beyond Entertainment, offering both free and pay-per-view titles direct to customer devices along with inflight entertainment tablets available for rent, Pacific Northwest-inspired food and beverages and power at every seat.

Alaska Airlines is extending its support of the Orlando community, which it has served since 2003.
