Boutique Air Announces Start Date for Pendleton Flights to Portland Carrier to offer fares starting at $49 to Portland

SAN FRANCISCO (Dec. 6, 2016) – Boutique Air announced today that it will be initiating service between Pendleton Regional Airport (PDT) in Pendleton, OR to Portland International Airport (PDX) beginning December 19th. The airline was recently awarded the DOT Essential Air Service contract to provide service between Pendleton, Oregon and Portland, Oregon after receiving strong support from local leadership and the broader community.

“We are excited to bring Boutique Air service to the community of Pendleton,” said CEO Shawn Simpson. “Our focus on customer service and reliability has resulted in strong demand for our service in a variety of communities and we look forward to creating the same success story here.”

Fares will start at an introductory rate of $49 from Pendleton to Portland. The schedule will feature three daily round trip flights between Pendleton and Portland. The schedule can be found in the adjacent table or online at www.boutiqueair.com.

Boutique Air operates a modern fleet of both Swiss-made Pilatus PC-12 aircraft and Beechcraft King Air 350 aircraft. With amenities designed to make the flying experience as comfortable as it gets, our aircraft features reclining leather seats in an executive configuration, power outlets, a pressurized cabin, enclosed lavatory, and a top speed of 300 mph.

Boutique Air is an FAA-certified air carrier providing both air charter and scheduled service. The airline currently services routes in Arizona, Alabama, California, New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Nebraska, Minnesota, Mississippi, Tennessee, Georgia, Oregon and Utah. Reservations can be made online now by visiting www.boutiqueair.com or by phone at (855) 268-8478.
