Summary:

Berth 315 is a fenced facility with locked gates. The Port can provide negotiable short/long term rates for lay berth vessels. The downstream dolphins are located 390 feet and 270 feet from the downstream end of the catwalk for personnel access during lay berth operations. The upstream bollard is located 280 feet from the catwalk.

Access:

Berth 315 is accessed directly from Channel Avenue.