

President, be constituted a Committee to review the Port's wage scale and current conditions affecting same, and report to the Commission. This motion was seconded, put and carried and Commissioners O'Reilly and Polhemus were designated by the President accordingly.

The following resolution was prepared and transmitted in accordance with motion passed this date:

WHEREAS, The Port of Portland Commission has lost by death the services of Gus C. Moser, its General Counsel and Legal Advisor; and

WHEREAS, Gus C. Moser has served The Port of Portland Commission for many years, giving to it a full measure of service and advice under which the affairs of The Port have been greatly advanced; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Port Commission feel that they have not only lost an advisor but also a close friend and associate whose advice was of value to each of them in their official capacity and whose friendship was of enduring memory;

NOW THEREFORE:

BE IT RESOLVED that the Commission of The Port of Portland does hereby express its deep sense of loss in the sudden death of Gus C. Moser, and its appreciation for the many valuable services rendered it by him; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Resolution be spread upon the Minute Book of the Commission and that a copy be executed by the President and sent to Mrs. Moser in token of the affection and esteem in which each member of the Commission held him.

There being no further matters offered the Commission, upon motion, adjourned.

APPROVED:

May 12, 1937

Chas. D. Corbett
President

Walter Standish
Secretary

Portland, Oregon, May 10, 1937.

The regular monthly meeting called for this date, adjourned until 11:00 A.M., May 12th.

Those answering roll call and voting for adjournment were Commissioners Squires, O'Reilly, Standish, Smith and Boyce.

APPROVED:

May 12, 1937

President
Walter Standish
Secretary.