No one loves the Portland Timbers more than us. ...Well, except for maybe Alaska Airlines. And so we teamed up in September with Alaska and Timbers Roy Miller and Lawrence Olum for an autograph party at the Portland International Airport Clocktower Plaza. Fans arrived with Timbers jerseys and soccer balls to sign and everyone left with a smile. Especially, two lucky fans; one who won a pair of first class upgrade certificates for their next flight on Alaska and the other who scored two club tickets for the Timbers Oct. 22 match.
