

Find Flavors of Mexico on Aeromexico

portside.portofportland.online/2017/12/find-flavors-of-mexico-on-aeromexico/

December 11, 2017

Watch Video At: <https://youtu.be/1JpF31TZ64A>

The joy of exploring a new city is often best remembered by what you see, taste, touch and hear on your journey.

Aeromexico now travels nonstop from Portland International Airport to Mexico City, the heart of both modern Mexico and the center of the ancient Aztec Empire.

Mexico City sightseeing offers you Templo Mayor, a 13th-century Aztec temple; the baroque Catedral Metropolitana de México of the Spanish conquistadors, and the Palacio Nacional, which houses historic murals by Diego Rivera.

If your scene is cuisine, the city is replete with world-renowned cuisine including Pujol, a restaurant ranked among the top 20 in the world by Restaurant magazine. Pujol chef Enrique Olvera happens to be the same person who designed the in-flight menus for Aeromexico.

And satisfy your senses by taking time to listen to the diverse sounds of Mexico, featuring a wide range of musical genres and performance styles. While you're debating your next vacation destination, embrace this audio adventure.

Visit www.aeromexico.com to learn more about this top-tier service to PDX's twelfth international destination.