You know your local beer, so you know HopWorks Urban Brewery. But do you know these 10 things that will make you like Hopworks even more?

1. Catching a flight? Hopworks is now available on Concourse E in Portland International Airport.
2. Hopworks is Portland's largest family-owned and operated brewery.
3. They use pure water from the Bull Run Watershed in the Oregon Cascades.
4. Hopworks brews with organic hops and grains sustainably raised and sourced from local growers.
5. It's not all about beer, Hopworks has great food too.
6. Oh. Hopworks also serves hard cider.
7. Hopworks earned certification as the first B Corporation brewery in the Pacific Northwest, reserved for businesses that meet the highest standards of verified social and environmental performance, public transparency, and legal accountability to balance profit and purpose.
8. Hopworks became the first Salmon-Safe Certified brewery in the world, helping keep urban and agricultural watersheds in the Pacific Northwest clean enough for native salmon to spawn.
9. And if that's not enough to make you feel better, as a member of 1% For The Planet, Hopworks donates 1% of all pint sale proceeds to environmental non-profits that they admire and respect.
10. Finally, Hopworks celebrated its 10th anniversary last year and offers locations in Southeast and North Portland, and Vancouver in addition to PDX.
