

Need a Last-Minute Gift? PDX Has You Covered.

portside.portofportland.online/2020/12/need-a-last-minute-gift-pdx-has-you-covered/

December 16, 2020

If you need a last-minute stocking stuffer or holiday gift, the local businesses that have stores at the Portland International Airport have you covered.

Even if you aren't passing through PDX right now, you can still order many of these gifts online. Or give our PDX shops a call to see if they can deliver products to you curbside. Many of our shops are getting creative to get you the items you want this holiday season.

Columbia Sportswear

Need a few more items to help a loved one stay warm over the cold winter months? Consider these plush throw blankets from Columbia Sportswear. They are the perfect way to keep everyone on your list warm over the holiday.

Related: 6 ways to support local businesses this holiday season

Made in Oregon

---

Dress your beverage in style with this holiday sweater koozie by Puffin Coolers! It's the perfect gift for people who love the outdoors and aren't afraid to get silly.

The Market & Oregonian News

---

You simply cannot go wrong with Moonstruck holiday chocolates. These are a favorite of customers at PDX. We get it. Who doesn't love the gift of chocolate?

Got a gamer in your life? The Market and Oregonian News also offer a PAC-MAN 40th Anniversary micro player. It's a working version of the original game, complete with sound and everything. Check out this fun toy that also makes a great collector's item.

Real Mother Goose

---

Real Mother Goose is a local small business with plenty of jewelry and crafts from local artists. We will sadly be saying goodbye to the PDX store after the holiday season, so now is the best time to support them. They're offering a closeout sale with a number of items discounted from 20% to 40%. Take a look at what's available on their website, then give them a call to ask about curbside delivery options.

Stumptown

---

Hey, Stumptown isn't just about coffee, although coffee mugs and beans make great gifts. This year, the local shop added playing cards to their inventory. Their design is quirky and fun, just like Stumptown!

Related: Celebrate the holiday season with coffee

Tender Loving Empire

---

TLE's Penrose Candle collection lets you explore three different parts of Oregon's landscape. This series is part of a special collaboration between Tender Loving Empire and Penrose Candles, available exclusively at TLE.

Timberline

---

Timberline has a selection of ironwork from a blacksmith that has been re-creating the ironwork in the Timberline Lodge since the 1970s: Daryl Nelson from Meridian Forge. These pieces make great gifts because they are one of a kind – fitting for someone who loves history, craftsmanship and the beauty of what our hands can create.

Vino Volo

---

Vino Volo is offering holiday gift packs, which feature three wines at 20% off and two wine tumblers. Check out the Vino Volo website to see what local wines they sell, then give the store a call to see what holiday packages are available. Even if you aren't flying right now, Vino Volo staff confirmed they can deliver the wine to vehicles parked outside.

Related: Join Vino Volo on Dec. 17 for a virtual wine happy hour

